

SKULLSUIT - EN

About the Band

SKULLSUIT is a groove metal band from Limburg, the Netherlands, founded in 2011. Their sound is defined by an energetic blend of heavy riffs, bluesy guitar leads, thunderous drums, and powerful vocals ranging from dark cleans to aggressive growls.

Following their debut EP Raw, Loud, Immoral but Evident in 2011, they released their first full-length album Momentum in 2015 through Into the Limelight Records. In 2022, they dropped two more singles, unveiling their evolved sound: Ultimate Violence and Now You Bleed In Me.

In 2015, SKULLSUIT won the audience award at the national finals of the Dutch Metal Battle, earning them a spot in the Wacken Metal Battle NL finals, where they finished second. After a period of absence, the band is back with a new line-up, renewed energy, fresh material, and a tighter live act.

Press & Media

- Zware Metalen on Momentum: “I particularly like the power ballad ‘Lonely I’ and ‘The Ringer’s Truth’. And dual solos like ‘For The One We’ve Lost’ could definitely make more appearances. All in all, a solid debut.”
- Rockportaal on Momentum: “The band clearly shows what they’re capable of. And with the promise that no live show is the same as the last, and with a 110% commitment, this is a band you need to see live.”
